DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of the appeal brief filed on 08/31/2004, PROSECUTION IS HEREBY REOPENED. A new ground of rejection is set forth below.

To avoid abandonment of the application, appellant must exercise one of the following two options:

(1) file a reply under 37 CFR 1.111 (if this Office action is non-final) or a reply under 37 CFR 1.113 (if this Office action is final); or,

(2) request reinstatement of the appeal.

If reinstatement of the appeal is requested, such request must be accompanied by a supplemental appeal brief, but no new amendments, affidavits (37 CFR 1.130, 1.131 or 1.132) or other evidence are permitted. See 37 CFR 1.193(b)(2).

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 13 in the appeal brief filed 08/31/2004 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 13 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Knox ('626) in view of Wilder et al ('809) or Smith ('621).

Knox discloses a projection system comprising an illumination system (210), a polarizing beam splitter (220), the polarizing beam splitter defines a first tilt axis with respect to the axis (221) of the illumination system, a color separation prism (530), the prism assembly having a second tilt axis with respect to said axis (221), wherein the polarizing beam splitter and the prism assembly are arranged such that the first and second tilt axes are perpendicular to each other, Note Fig. 15 along with the associated description thereof, except for the polarizing beam splitter being a Cartesian type polarizing beam splitter.

Wilder et al and Smith each teach it is well known to use Cartesian type polarizing beam splitters in the form of a cube having a polarizing film disposed along a diagonal plane in the same field of endeavor for the purpose of reflecting a first polarization component and transmitting a second polarization component orthogonal to said first polarization component.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the polarizing beam splitter of Knox to include an function equivalent Cartesian type polarizing beam splitter, as taught by Wilder et al or Smith, in order to similarly reflect a first polarization component and transmit a second polarization component orthogonal to said first polarization component.

5. Claims 1-12 and 25 are allowed.
